

THE FRISBY PLAYERS NEWSLETTER

Welcome to The Frisby Players Spring 2009 newsletter introducing the programme of events and activities for the coming months.

The theme for the next twelve months is to establish a group of Players who want to enjoy the drama experience and encourage newcomers to the society in a variety of roles both on and off the stage.

The season will kick off with a Wild West Murder Mystery night on Saturday 30th May. The evening will be hosted by "Ringo" and "Belle" and will invite you aboard the paddle steamer "Lucy Lastic". The event will feature a high level of audience participation, with nine character actors mingled amongst the party. With four action-packed scenes written by Geoff Harris, the main aim of this production is to create a really enjoyable evening for all whilst bringing new actors to the Society and giving them the confidence to perform before an audience without the taxing requirement to learn endless pages of lines.

The audience will experience a taste of the West in the form of a barbeque, country and western band and long bar. Dressing-up will be encouraged...

THE FRISBY PLAYERS PROUDLY PRESENT

A ROOTIN' TOOTIN' COWBOY SHOOTIN'

The Frisby Players have been invited by the team at Fristock to open the event where we will play to potentially our biggest audience ever. This is an opportunity to advertise our society to hundreds of village visitors, friends and family. Ideally the event will attract a few new faces to our rehearsals and encourage those on the fringes.

We need eight volunteers who will be given extensive training in flying their barrows to synchronized music, trailing smoke and performing daring manoeuvres. Bags of fun and an act that should appeal to all ages alike!

Hopefully on the back of some summer laughter we may have a meaningful audition in the autumn for our winter performance.

The Frisby Players Committee welcomes your feedback and trust that we can count on your support as we start to roll out the programme of forthcoming events.

A drama group, reading group, youth group, annual pantomime, new membership benefits and a number of other themes are under discussion. If you have any ideas and would like greater input to the discussions, please contact us today by calling Tim on 01664 434293, Kate on 01664 434529 or Andy on 01664 434426.
